Project Title

Introduction

<background about your research, introducing the research area and the significance of your research>

Research Questions

<List your research questions, be specific about your deliverables, and how these deliverables can be useful>

Research Methods

<Introduce your data sources, techniques, or measures, and how each of the techniques and measures relates to your research questions>

Results

<Present the results by research questions>

Conclusions

<Discuss the results and their implications, discuss the limitations of the research>